Inspired by the Word

10 June to 2 September

This county-wide exhibition by contemporary artists celebrates the literature of three great Hampshire writers; Jane Austen, Edward Thomas and Gilbert White. The museum's beautiful gardens are host to a small exhibition of sculptural works marking 200 years since Jane Austen's death. To find out more about Inspired by the Word, visit www.janeausten200.co.uk.

Gizmobots

22 July to 2 September

Gizmobots are robots that start life as finds from skips, second-hand shops, car boot sales and scrapyards. Each gizmobot is carefully crafted so that all the parts come together to create a very desirable, quirky robot, each with their own distinct personality. Visit our family-friendly exhibition and spend time recognising the bits and pieces from familiar home appliances and everyday objects that make our amazing gizmobots.

Special Sunday Openings 2017

23 and 30 July; 6, 13, 20 and 27 August; 12noon to 4:00pm

Red House Museum and Gardens

Relax in our coffee shop or tranquil gardens and enjoy a bean-to-cup coffee or speciality tea with a slice of cake. Pick up our loyalty card and enjoy your sixth hot drink on us! Browse our pre-loved books, and pop into the museum shop for gifts inspired by our collections and made by local crafts people.

Both the gardens and museum are available for hire for meetings, functions or receptions. The south gardens make an excellent space for special events, while our upstairs education room is suitable for groups of up to 30 with presentation facilities including Wi-Fi. For more details, visit our website or call us on 01202 482860.
